

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Revolution Music Group Announces Formation of Revolution Records

New label division to champion emerging artists and reshape the future of music discovery

Beverly Hills, CA — January 5, 2026 — Revolution Music Group (RMG) today announced the formation of Revolution Records, a new full-service record label division dedicated to discovering, developing, and amplifying the next generation of recording artists across genres.

The launch marks a significant expansion of RMG's presence in the music industry, building on the company's established reputation in the music business to now include artist development, recording, and distribution under one unified vision.

Revolution Records represents the natural next step in the mission of Revolution Music Group. The new division will focus on building a label that combines the reach and resources of a major with the agility and artist-centric culture of an independent. Revolution Records will be a home where creativity comes first, and artists have a true partner in their growth.

Revolution Records is expected to announce its first signings and release schedule in the coming months. The label will operate out of offices in Los Angeles with additional offices in Nashville and Orlando and plans for regional expansions.

About Revolution Music Group

Revolution Music Group (RMG) is an entertainment company spanning, live events, brand partnerships, and publishing. They blend depth in major cross-industry resources and are powered by a diverse, high-energy team that blends decades of music-industry expertise with fresh, next-generation thinking.

Media Contact:

Hope Bowen

Director of Publicity, Revolution Music Group

hbowen@revolutionft.com